NOMINATIONS SCARCE
IN CIVILS’ ELECTIONS

There were no nominations handed in last week for the Janus Club’s nomination committee. Prof. Chase, head of the committee, said that if any member of the Junior Class in the society is to be elected to this position in the election to be held tomorrow, the ticket method will have to be used.

One of the ticket committee, however, was nominated by the Executive Committee and the Exec and Committee to run on the ticket.

The members of the committee were: Pres. John W. Freeman, Jr., ’25, and Secretaries: Kurt Westrup, ’25, and Lewis S. Fall, ’25.

FALL CONCERT AND DANCE
TICKET SALE LIMITED TO 150 COUPLES
On Sale In Main Lobby 12-2 P.M. All Week Until Exhausted

CONCERT 8:15-9:45
DANCING 10-2
$3.00 PER COUPLE

OFFICIAL

ON RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN SCIENCE

The eighth annual meeting will be held Thursday, December 4, at 4 P.M. in room 12-50. Professor S. B. Pomer- aby, Professors E. G. Sisson and Phys- ics and Public Health, will talk on Recent Applications of Electricity in Surgery.

BIOLOGY LECTURES

Mr. Charles H. Carver, who has conducted the class in the Department of Biology and been in charge of the practice of the first-year course, has been assigned Professors of Botany, Fishes and Plants. The lectures will be given in room 10-15 on Tuesday, December 2, from 11-12; Thursday, December 4, from 11-12; and Sunday, December 14, from 11-12. Professor Carver will be assisted by students. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

COURSE V SENIORS

Any Course V students expecting to graduate should consult Professor G. K. Kene at room 6-175.

STUDENTS ACCOUNTS

Solicited

Manufacturers National Bank

81 ATLANTIC AVENUE

Boston, Mass.

A Hotline for Autos

WHEN YOU NEED THEM

NEEDED DURING OFFICIAL HOURS

FOR AUTOMOBILE REPAIRS

610-9-1, or at 5:30 in the evening in room 10-421.

LECTURE ON "THE HISTORY, MANUFACTURE, AND APPLICATION OF AUTOMOTIVE ENGINES"

A lecture on "The History, Manufacture, and Application of Automotive Engines" will be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Mining Metallurgy Society. Admission will be free to members of the society.

All members of the society are expected to attend and the evening will end with a reception.

LECTURE ON MANGANESE STEEL HELD TOWARD

A talk will be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Mining Metallurgy Society. Admission will be free to members of the society.

All members of the society are expected to attend and the evening will end with a reception.

PRINCIPLE V SUGGESTION

M. L. T.

THE REVIEW

(Continued from Page 3)

OMINATIONS SCARCE
IN CIVILS’ ELECTIONS

There were no nominations handed in last week for the Janus Club’s nomination committee. Prof. Chase, head of the committee, said that if any member of the Junior Class in the society is to be elected to this position in the election to be held tomorrow, the ticket method will have to be used.

One of the ticket committee, however, was nominated by the Executive Committee and the Exec and Committee to run on the ticket.

The members of the committee were: Pres. John W. Freeman, Jr., ’25, and Secretaries: Kurt Westrup, ’25, and Lewis S. Fall, ’25.

FALL CONCERT AND DANCE
TICKET SALE LIMITED TO 150 COUPLES
On Sale In Main Lobby 12-2 P.M. All Week Until Exhausted

CONCERT 8:15-9:45
DANCING 10-2
$3.00 PER COUPLE

OFFICIAL

ON RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN SCIENCE

The eighth annual meeting will be held Thursday, December 4, at 4 P.M. in room 12-50. Professor S. B. Pomer- aby, Professors E. G. Sisson and Phys- ics and Public Health, will talk on Recent Applications of Electricity in Surgery.

BIOLOGY LECTURES

Mr. Charles H. Carver, who has conducted the class in the Department of Biology and been in charge of the practice of the first-year course, has been assigned Professors of Botany, Fishes and Plants. The lectures will be given in room 10-15 on Tuesday, December 2, from 11-12; Thursday, December 4, from 11-12; and Sunday, December 14, from 11-12. Professor Carver will be assisted by students. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

COURSE V SENIORS

Any Course V students expecting to graduate should consult Professor G. K. Kene at room 6-175.

STUDENTS ACCOUNTS

Solicited

Manufacturers National Bank

81 ATLANTIC AVENUE

Boston, Mass.

A Hotline for Autos

WHEN YOU NEED THEM

NEEDED DURING OFFICIAL HOURS

FOR AUTOMOBILE REPAIRS

610-9-1, or at 5:30 in the evening in room 10-421.

LECTURE ON "THE HISTORY, MANUFACTURE, AND APPLICATION OF AUTOMOTIVE ENGINES"

A lecture on "The History, Manufacture, and Application of Automotive Engines" will be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Mining Metallurgy Society. Admission will be free to members of the society.

All members of the society are expected to attend and the evening will end with a reception.

LECTURE ON MANGANESE STEEL HELD TOWARD

A talk will be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Mining Metallurgy Society. Admission will be free to members of the society.

All members of the society are expected to attend and the evening will end with a reception.

PRINCIPLE V SUGGESTION

M. L. T.

THE REVIEW

(Continued from Page 3)

OMINATIONS SCARCE
IN CIVILS’ ELECTIONS

There were no nominations handed in last week for the Janus Club’s nomination committee. Prof. Chase, head of the committee, said that if any member of the Junior Class in the society is to be elected to this position in the election to be held tomorrow, the ticket method will have to be used.

One of the ticket committee, however, was nominated by the Executive Committee and the Exec and Committee to run on the ticket.

The members of the committee were: Pres. John W. Freeman, Jr., ’25, and Secretaries: Kurt Westrup, ’25, and Lewis S. Fall, ’25.

FALL CONCERT AND DANCE
TICKET SALE LIMITED TO 150 COUPLES
On Sale In Main Lobby 12-2 P.M. All Week Until Exhausted

CONCERT 8:15-9:45
DANCING 10-2
$3.00 PER COUPLE

OFFICIAL

ON RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN SCIENCE

The eighth annual meeting will be held Thursday, December 4, at 4 P.M. in room 12-50. Professor S. B. Pomer- aby, Professors E. G. Sisson and Phys- ics and Public Health, will talk on Recent Applications of Electricity in Surgery.

BIOLOGY LECTURES

Mr. Charles H. Carver, who has conducted the class in the Department of Biology and been in charge of the practice of the first-year course, has been assigned Professors of Botany, Fishes and Plants. The lectures will be given in room 10-15 on Tuesday, December 2, from 11-12; Thursday, December 4, from 11-12; and Sunday, December 14, from 11-12. Professor Carver will be assisted by students. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

COURSE V SENIORS

Any Course V students expecting to graduate should consult Professor G. K. Kene at room 6-175.

STUDENTS ACCOUNTS

Solicited

Manufacturers National Bank

81 ATLANTIC AVENUE

Boston, Mass.

A Hotline for Autos

WHEN YOU NEED THEM

NEEDED DURING OFFICIAL HOURS

FOR AUTOMOBILE REPAIRS

610-9-1, or at 5:30 in the evening in room 10-421.

LECTURE ON "THE HISTORY, MANUFACTURE, AND APPLICATION OF AUTOMOTIVE ENGINES"

A lecture on "The History, Manufacture, and Application of Automotive Engines" will be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Mining Metallurgy Society. Admission will be free to members of the society.

All members of the society are expected to attend and the evening will end with a reception.

LECTURE ON MANGANESE STEEL HELD TOWARD

A talk will be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Mining Metallurgy Society. Admission will be free to members of the society.

All members of the society are expected to attend and the evening will end with a reception.

PRINCIPLE V SUGGESTION

M. L. T.

THE REVIEW

(Continued from Page 3)