NED WAYBURN CHOSEN TO

Four years ago, Mr. Wayburn founded his "School of Stage Dancing" and also his Booklet Office. Since then he has continued to produce and direct musical comedies, revues, vaudeville acts and events in both professional and college theatres. Outstanding from the more recent entertainment which he has been producing is the "Mask King" (1924) at the Hotel Plaza, New York for the Bug Slinger, and the "Ned Wayburn's Burlesque Vaudeville" at the Hotel Boardwalk, Atlantic City, New Jersey. Currently, Wayburn, engaged by the management to coach the entire production, is selected to take the male acts.

According to the show management, he is a new system of coaching will be employed this year. Instead of the usual rehearsal of four or five hours at regular intervals, the show is presented to the company, prior to Wednesdays, Saturdays, and the first Sunday of each month. This system is particularly to benefit the members of the Tech Show, who are not persons four times, to work in the same system.

Skins To Be Given

This year, this will include a performance, at Paramount's Theatre, Harvard, on the 16th, at the Waltham Theatre Ballroom, New York, on March 24. As customary, the New York performance will be followed by a dance. Because of the fact that Smith College has its vacation at the same time, Tech will not be able to tour this year. Several other schools will be announced in the near future.

Undergraduates

According to the show management, all candidates for Tech Show 1925 will be presented. All candidates on the places of any age, is to work in the same system.
