CLUBS ALL READY FOR BIG AUDIENCES AT WINTER CONCERT

Ticket Sale Results Promise Full Ballroom at Hotel Old Colony

TO USE BANNER SYSTEM
Several Festivities Reserve Blocks of Seats For Performances

According to the results of the ticket sale, all the clubs of Boston University are very enthusiastic about the Winter Concert, the Louis XV Ballroom in the Hotel Old Colony. There is not a single club which has not sold all its tickets, and the last prices were sold even before the tickets were put on sale. This is a great demand on the part of the students, who have eagerly bought their tickets at the regular price of $1.25, and now they are planning to make a profit out of their investments.

The Winter Concert is the second of the series of the public concerts in the Hotel Old Colony, and is due to begin this January 23. This concert will be followed by the annual Spring Concert, which is due to take place in the spring. The Winter Concert is a grand event, and the students are looking forward to it with great anticipation. They are eagerly waiting for the time when they can enjoy the music and entertainment of the concert.

OSTERHOUT GIVES SEDGWICK LECTURE
Speaks Tonight on Rogers' "Problems of Cellular Physiology"
The Professor of Physiology, the late Mr. Rogers, will deliver his last lecture tonight at 7:30. Mr. Rogers' lecture will be on the problem of cellular physiology. The subject is very important, and the audience is expected to be large.

The lecture will be held in the Sedgwick Hall, and is open to all students and faculty members. The lecture will be followed by a discussion, and students are encouraged to attend.

BOY SCOUTS TO HEAR HEAD CIVILS TO HEAR HEAD OFFICIALS

B. U. SEXTET Noses Out TECHNOLOGY HOCKEY TEAM AT THE ARENA WEDNESDAY

AERO SOCIETY TO HEAR WORLD FLIGHT LECTURE
At the Astronautical Engineering Society meeting this evening, Mr. J. P. Munroe will lecture on the world flight. The lecture will be held in the Merrick Hall, and is open to all students and faculty members.

Second Fresman Lecture Given by J. P. Munroe '85

"Purists and Pilgrims Are As Different as a Man And a Child" is the theme of the lecture given by Mr. J. P. Munroe '85. The lecture will be delivered this evening at 8:00 in the Ballroom of the Hotel Old Colony. The lecture is open to all students and faculty members.

SWIMMERS TO MEET ARMY AT AMHERST

Sound Leaves for Week-end Trip to New England

Expected To Star

This week-end the Bu. swimming team will make a week-end trip to New England. The team will visit the Army and West Point. The goal of the trip is to get to the head of the pack in the swimming races. The team will also use the trip as a chance to see other laboratories.

The team will leave tomorrow morning and return on Monday morning. The trip is expected to be a success.

PLANS FOR OPEN HOUSE NIGHT ARE UNDER WAY

Plans are already being formulated for the first open house night of the year. The open house night is scheduled for this evening at 8:00. The open house night is open to all students and faculty members.

The open house night is an opportunity for students to meet and socialize with other students and faculty members. It is also an opportunity for students to learn about the different courses and programs offered by the university.

At the open house night, students will have the opportunity to meet with professors and staff members. They will also have the opportunity to tour the different laboratories and facilities.

The open house night is an exciting event, and students are encouraged to attend. It is a great opportunity to meet new people and learn about the university.