A Record of Continuous News Service for 43 Years

WRESTLERS DEFEAT TUFTS GRapplers BY DECISIVE SCORE

Technology Wins in Six Classes
By Falls—Decision in One Bout Only

TRY-OLIN BOUT FASTEST

Visitors Outclass in Every Match—Engineers Never In Danger

A great Technology wrestling team, meeting a very fast Tufts team, was one of the best contests of the season. Both teams had been working hard and both were to be congratulated. The first Bout was won by a score of two to nothing. The next Bout was barred against the Governor, by a score of one to nothing. The next Bout was won by a score of two to nothing. The next Bout was won by the Tufts in the first round and the next Bout was won by the Technology in the second round. The last Bout was won by the Tufts in the first round and the second round. The last Bout was won by the Technology in the second round.

FORERUNNERS RETURN TO SPEAK

R. H. Richards Well Known At Institute Before His Retirement in 1914

Professor R. H. Richards '90 will address the Members of the Men's Social Club this afternoon at 3:30, in room 4-231. The lecture will deal with the history of the Institute from its beginning to the present day, and on the development of the faculty from 1861 to 1914.

Professor Richards was born in 1851. He came to the Institute in January 1914, he has not been active in the laboratory and is not interested in the Institute's affairs. He has been a member of the Institute for thirty years, and he is a member of the faculty for thirty years. His present address is in New York, and his present residence is in New York.

Tickets for Formal DANCE ON SALE

Starts today and continuing throughout the week, the Student's Union will sell tickets for the formal dance at 45 cents each. The dance will be held on Saturday night, April 20, in the hall of the General Electric Company. The tickets will be sold at the Student's Union, and they will be available at any time during the week. The dance will be held in the hall of the General Electric Company, and it will be a dance for the benefit of the Student's Union.

TICKETS FOR FORMAL DANCE ON SALE

Starting today and continuing throughout the week, the Student's Union will sell tickets for the formal dance at 45 cents each. The dance will be held on Saturday night, April 20, in the hall of the General Electric Company. The tickets will be sold at the Student's Union, and they will be available at any time during the week. The dance will be held in the hall of the General Electric Company, and it will be a dance for the benefit of the Student's Union.

Loss Confirmed

The loss of the Liberty ship "Liberty 4" was confirmed today. The ship was lost at sea near the Azores, and the crew of 44 men was never heard from again. The ship was on its way to Europe with a cargo of wheat, and the crew had been on board for several months. The loss of the ship will be felt by the families of the crew members, and the government will be responsible for the welfare of the families.

TICKETS FOR FORMAL DANCE ON SALE

Starting today and continuing throughout the week, the Student's Union will sell tickets for the formal dance at 45 cents each. The dance will be held on Saturday night, April 20, in the hall of the General Electric Company. The tickets will be sold at the Student's Union, and they will be available at any time during the week. The dance will be held in the hall of the General Electric Company, and it will be a dance for the benefit of the Student's Union.

Lost Dog Mystery is Laid to Dormitory Robin

A dog was reported missing from the dormitory of the university, Friday night. The dog was last seen leaving the dormitory with a man who appeared to be drunk. The dog was last seen on the street near the dormitory, and it is believed that the dog may have been taken or killed. The dog was a small, dark-colored dog, and it was last seen on the street near the dormitory.

Four Aldred Lecture Of Year

Delivered By Engineer

"Knowing How To Do Things More Valuable Than Working," was the title of the lecture delivered by an engineer. The lecture was given to the students of the school, and it was received with great interest. The engineer spoke of the value of learning how to do things, and he emphasized the importance of thinking about the results of one's work. He also spoke of the importance of being able to do things that are valuable, and he emphasized the importance of thinking about the results of one's work.

M. L. Pasano

Professor M. L. Pasano, Member of Mathematics Department

13th ANNUAL ARCH TROPI Folding Contest

"The Courts of M.L.T."
"New Words to Stein Song Music"

Professor L. M. Pasano, of the Mathematics Department, was the judge of the 13th Annual Arch Tropi Folding Contest, which was held on Saturday, April 20, in the Student's Union. The contest was open to all students, and it was sponsored by the Mathematics Department. The contest was held in the Student's Union, and it was a contest for the best folding of the arch tropi symbol, which is the symbol of the Mathematics Department.

Activity Program

Forty members of the class of 1920 were enrolled in Chemistry, and the class was divided into four groups. The members of the class were divided into four groups, and each group was given a problem to solve. The problems were solved by the members of the class, and the solutions were presented to the class. The problems were solved by the members of the class, and the solutions were presented to the class.

COURSE IN FLYING STARTS THIS TERM

Future Aviators Will Attend Ground School Classes

At a meeting of the Aeronautical Ex- erimental Laboratory, the committee was authorized to begin the course in flying, the first flight of which was to be made on Thursday, May 2, at 4 o'clock. The course was to be held in Walker Memorial, and it was to be attended by the men of the class of 1920, who were enrolled in Chemistry, and the class was divided into four groups. The members of the class were divided into four groups, and each group was given a problem to solve. The problems were solved by the members of the class, and the solutions were presented to the class. The problems were solved by the members of the class, and the solutions were presented to the class.

(Continued on Page 6)

CLUBS TRY NEW MODE OF IDENTIFYING MEN

Musicians Wear Red and Grey Ribbons at Concert

A slight innovation was started at the Central Musical Club's concert last Friday evening at Whitney Hall in the Hall. The musicians were identified by new modes of wearing the ribbons. One member of the club wore a red ribbon on his right arm and a grey ribbon on his left arm, and the other member of the club wore a grey ribbon on his right arm and a red ribbon on his left arm. The members of the club were divided into groups, and each group was given a problem to solve. The problems were solved by the members of the club, and the solutions were presented to the class. The problems were solved by the members of the club, and the solutions were presented to the class.

(Continued on Page 6)