CIRCUS ACCLAIMED AS GREAT SUCCESS
Armory Crowded by Students Making Call to "Big Show"

Organized finery, in which the antics of the superstars were an additional benefit. A ballet Ņose, by the Architectural Engineering Department, showed the students all due artistry and grace, through the medium of their figures, in a manner that did not fail to attract the attention of the audience. The exhibition of the students was an added benefit to the circus feature, and afforded the elaborated and conventional movements of the acrobats a resting permanently their appearance.

There was much more to come. The Van Deusen Brothers, chaperoned by the Manager of the show, announced an attraction of the highest order in the form of a live picture show, or rather a picture show on a live scale, never before attempted on a scale, never before attempted in this country. It was a great success.
