MANAGING BOARD FOR VOLUME XLV TO BE ANNOUNCED

LATTER FROM NEW YORK

Edward McKesson, Eastern Division Superintendent, has written to President Fairley to say that the board will be held in the Hot- el Lenon tonight. It is expected that Professor H. W. Ty- ler, secretary of the Associated Press, will also be present.

The banquet is being held this year in honor of the students of the last year, who have been instrumental in continuing the tradition of excellence in journalism. The banquet will feature several lectures and speeches, including a keynote address by Professor E. E. Whiting.

The annual banquet is an opportunity for the students to come together and celebrate their achievements in journalism. It is a time to reflect on the past year and look forward to the future. The banquet will feature a variety of activities, including speeches, awards, and entertainment.
