A RUMOR is circulating that a prominent activity of the Inter-Sorority Council has been so successful that it has been awarded a special recognition title of "Inter-Sorority Council of the Year". The office of the President is to be vacated early and the Vice-President is to take over temporarily until a successor can be found. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, at 7:30 p.m., in the Council Room. The meeting will be held in the Council Room and is expected to be well attended.

F. D. HANCOCK
President, Inter-Sorority Council

The Parking of Cars

The men who park their cars along the side of Building 2 are reminded that they are violating a regulation prohibiting parking in front of the building. The administration will take steps to eject any vehicles found in violation of this regulation.

The Tech, Volume XL, states in its announcement for the following day:

"The Tech" is a weekly newspaper published by the Harvard University School of Engineering and Applied Sciences. It is the official organ of the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences and is published every Wednesday during the academic year. The newspaper is edited and published by students of the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences.

Page Two

THE TECH

Communications

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter to bring to your attention an issue that has been bothering me for some time. I believe it is important for us to discuss this matter openly and to find a solution that will benefit all students.

Sincerely,

[Name]

Page Four

"Chauve Souris" has Colorful Contasts

Robert's new edition of the "Chauve Souris" is now in the hands of the production team. As usual, the colorful production, featuring sumptuous sets and costumes, is a true delight for all those who appreciate the beauty of classical music. The orchestra, directed by Maestro Giovanni, is at the height of its form, delivering a performance that is nothing short of spectacular. The cast, headed by the talented soprano Maria Callas, sings with inspiring passion and technique.

The play opens with a festive scene in the Parisian underground, setting the stage for the dramatic events to follow. The audience is transported to a world of intrigue and adventure, where the characters face various challenges and obstacles. The story is full of twists and turns, keeping the audience on the edge of their seats.

In conclusion, the new edition of "Chauve Souris" is a true masterpiece, combining exceptional acting, exquisite staging, and a gripping storyline. It is a must-see for all theatre enthusiasts and a testament to the enduring appeal of this timeless classic.