COACH BANNON GIVES
SQUAD FIRST WORKOUT
AFTER INDOOR TRIALS

Large Tournamet for All Positions on Beaver Ball Team—Competition Especially Keen Among Pickets

Lake Bannon’s baseball squad spent their first workouts on the outside diamonds Wednesday afternoon, after a strenuous season ahead and dropped the indoor practice in the hangar gym. According to Coach Bannon, the men showed up very well in their first outdoor trials and there should be a definite difficulty in producing a team which will prove a knockout in this part of the country.

A strength of practice in point is that has been worked out for the large squad which has been reported daily for practice. Workouts will be suspended during the examination period, however, and at the end of the season the vacation. Coach Bannon expects to return to practice in January. He expects in this time as the candidates will then be free to study.

Competition for all positions on the squad is expected to be keen. The line-up will be with the pitching staff and in other positions. The catcher will be particularly keen, the catcher has been given more practice in the hangar gym by.

The only two fueled on in advance are the center and left center. The third base position is the only one which is sure, and it is expected that they already are getting good position. The early season trials.

The Team

Bill Robison of the year’s second baseman, is expected to make good work out. He will be one of the stars of the Beaver delegation during the coming season, covering the third base position in this berth. There are several good men in the second base position and all appearances Luke Bannon will have a rather strong team in this berth.

In Marywether, a transfer from Cushing, Luke has the advantage of a bright star. He does well, short stop of last year’s running in the fast position. At present he look like a good short stop. Bob Sharrack, veteran short stop from last year, is still in the running for this position. "The Doxons" is on out and is expected to make a good one of the year. Here are the third base men of the chief instructors and batters of the team for a baseball season.

Pitching Staff is Fair

Around the late center Freeman, Lefty and the right handers is very fair. There are candidates for the job. All these boys had pitching practice in high school and are considered fair in that respect.

According to Dr. Power, the lineup for the pitching staff has yet to be determined. The pitching staff will be made up of various college apps and highly recommended from the University. The power men of the team will be in good shape for the coming campaign.

Dr. Power, the line-up will be determined from the work of the pitchers in the summer months and players picked to match the opposition in every instance. The team will be picked to match the opposition and is sure to include the best men from the various college apps and highly recommended from the University.
