FOUR MORE PLACES OPEN TO STUDENTS

Corporation X^V Annual Trip
Starts This Afternoon
In Special Car

There are still four upper berth available for access vis-à-vis an

Corporation X^V's Stying Trip. This offer is open to anyone concerned with the institution, but must be acted on quickly as the train taking the special car leaves at 1:30 (the afternoon train) and will be made up of these tickets, which cost

$10 for the entire companx. These reductions have been paid at room 10-180.

Note: All men who are interested in the special trip should either sign up at Miss

Collier's office, 216, or see this year's production.

THE TECH

The Tech Show takes in its second trin tures this week. The story is of a twenti-ten century Puck who gives himself life over again, in order that he could be able to change his spirit.

The first act serves merely as introduction, and for that reason drains a bit. It is relieved from abnormally mo-tility by the acting of Victor Tudor as Bob, who delivers his tips the top survival of Elizabethan England. He leans around just at one would imagine the scene of the acting of E. E. Clive and Miss Ediss makes it a scene to be long remembered. All men who are interested in the special trip

should sign up at Miss

Collier's office, 216, or see this

year's production.

FINANCE AND BUSINESS

OFFICIALS

of the Tech Student Body

MRS. 25

Sophomore to MS 25 during the third term who want to choose the R. C. T. C. will be allowed to sign up for the officers in charge during the act, and before the start of the Third term, those who do not select will have their names put on the waiting list for the next term, which will be drawn for in Miss Collier's office.

STATEMENTS

A charge of $50 is made for each condition as an advanced standing examination, and $5.00 for the removal of each deposit. All books for the current term must be brought back to the office at the end of term, or a charge of 25 cents will be made for each book not returned.

TECH SHOW REHEARSALS

The Tech Show, which will be held at the Copley Theatre this week. The story is that of a twentieth century Puck who gives himself life over again, in order that he

could be able to change his spirit.

The first act serves merely as intro-

duction, and for that reason drains a

bit. It is relieved from abnormally mo-

tility by the acting of Victor Tudor

as Bob, who delivers his tips the top

survival of Elizabethan England. He

leans around just at one would imagine

the scene of the acting of E. E. Clive and

Miss Ediss makes it a scene to be long

remembered. All men who are in-

terested in the special trip

should sign up at Miss

Collier's office, 216, or see this year's production.