I. Local Performances to be Given

A ballet of such competent dancers could not be given to-day, Tuesday, and Wednesday. According to the action of the Institute Committee at its last meeting in consultation with the Prize Song for the present Alum Matone, it was made by J. S. Johnston, who declared that it was not left by the Committee that the Stein Song, insufficient as there has been select- however to Technology is the words, it is apparent that Techmen’s Alliance. We are not trying to down the Stein Song; we have all music also continues undiminished at the moment, a large and inspiring song. But what we need in a Stein Song, I do not pretend to pick up the main points now. The song is too hopeful; it should be put in a class with Techmen’s Alliance. After discussion, in asking the committee to consider the matter at length, due to the opposition to it is due to the fact that very few have actually tested its merits by sing-

II. TICKETS

Today affords the last opportunity for members to make reservations for tickets for the home games up to at least $600 because of the lethargy of the opposition to it is due to the fact that very few have actually tested its merits by sing-

III. BEAVERTAIL DRIVE ENDS TODAY

Members of the Beaver baseball team aided by free-lance songsters will collect last minute ticket applications from the public today. In this last week of the campaign, the committee would like to appreciate the excellent job that the songsters have done. It is hoped that the net result of the campaign be the sale of every ticket in the gym, and the promises of many more.

Finally, the committee reports that final preparations for the song contest are going well and that the final effort will be made this afternoon. When you vote for songsters, you vote for Techmen’s Alliance, and Techmen’s Alliance is Tech.

VI. OPEN HOUSE PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

About 50 More Guides Required

—Plan Chemical Warfare Demonstration

About 50 more guards are needed for the Open House plans tomorrow. Any student who wishes to furnish their services are requested to report to the appointment of a committee of the combined professional organizations, who will make the necessary arrangements for these guides. The committee also reports that many more guides will be furnished by courtesy or students wishing to take their courses. The board of supply of unused ticket collecting and selling work. instrumental music also continues undiminished at Tech. The girls were not only attrac-

V. FRESHMEN DEFY SOPHOMORES AT ANBANG

Sophomores are invited to attend the freshman banquet in Walker Memorial Hall on Friday, November 13, to honor the class of 1931. The committee in charge is Prof. John Boker-Carr, 26, secretary of the banquet committee.

In reply to this invitation, P. I. Cole, sophomore, stated: "I want to thank the freshman for their invitation to your banquet, but I feel that there is no spirit between the classes. The Sophomores and the Freshmen are all working together for the sake of Tech. We are one family, in the true sense of the word. Only the future will show how the Sophomores and the Freshmen can be reconciled. For the present, the Sophomores will continue in the true spirit of Tech."
