FALL TOURNAMENT START NEXT MONDAY
Entry List For Annual Event Is Posted on Bulletin in Main Lobby
Considerable interest is expected to be shown for the annual Men's Fall Tournament which will be held in the lobby of the Institute for the benefit of the Kappa Lambda chapter of Pi Gamma Mu. A list has been posted in the main lobby, and those who are interested in participating should sign up for the tournament.

FALL ENROLLMENT
With nearly thirty men reporting yesterday at the first meeting of the Men's Fall Football team, everyone involved with the sport is extremely confident of having a team that will meet the demands of the Commonwealth this year. There were about seven seniors last year and this year the present junior class is composed of many veterans of last year's team that held down in the final quarter, including Ken Hoxie, John Neumann, and Bill Lake. The Sophomore class meets two evenings before they meet the K. L. S. A. frosh on November 3. On October 24, they play a strong team in St. Anns, and on October 31, they meet another strong squad in Catholic Tech. In order to get the team in shape for the early season games, Coach Shotts has already started his practice in uniform for this afternoon on Tech Field at 4 o'clock.

The Sophomore Frosh will have to be in full clout when they meet the frosh class, as the incoming class has had the good fortune to obtain C. F. Shotts, the new secretary of the T. C. A., as head coach. Shotts is a former star of the University of Alabama, and if there is anything that can win the respect of the Sophomores, it is just this afternoon's practice. The Sophomore Frosh will have an early start in the art, literary, and business departments, the present frosh in shape for the coming encounter.
