A Custom Tailored Suit per se

THE buyer of a Ford, Packard or Rolls Royce readily appraises the advantages of a look as indicated by appearance, wear and comfort on the road. There are similar distinctions of value to be considered in one's choicest personal apparel. The logical method of matching inches to inches and ounces to ounces, in the selection of one's season's wardrobe is to have a custom made work at a safe economical price as you will see.

LOUIS PINKOS
College Tailor and Maker of Men's Clothes
Sargent Blvd, 2nd Floor  45 Bromfield St., Boston