SPORTSMANSHIP LAUNDERED AS A LIFE
GUIDE BY LECTURER
John P. Bowditch Speaks on
The Same Subject Picked
By Capt. Creed

NEXT TALK ON HANLIN
"The spirit of sportsmanship is as important in the home as in the school," said John P. Bowditch at the second installment yesterday afternoon.

"The title of his address was "Sportsman in the Home," "the Boy Scouts.
He then told of the game fair," mentioning in particular izations which are and have been try-enlce for good. He commended organ-by Dr. A. W. Rowe '01.

He conceived the idea of doing this and international thought who at-tempered forces can be brought together with through the brotherhood all opposing
a similar manner it is hoped that
and Matthew Woll, vice-president of "The whole issue of about 2,900 was sold out by 12 o'clock noon the day outside of the Institute were heavy.

In the middle according to Mr. Eaton. In the middle plays will not."

When the theatre won a new lease of life.
"According to Colonel Dudley, to whom this issue was theatre won a new lease of life.
Harrison's Art in Illustrating the good that the ideals of the publishers.

A Record of Continuous News Service
For 44 Years

Vol. XLV No. 49
CAMBRIDGE, MASS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1925

FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES ALL SET FOR ANNUAL FIELD DAY ENCOUNTER

RUSHING RULE WILL PROBABLY NOT PASS

The record shows that the International situation: We talk about we kick a good deal about bad weather, according to Mr. Eaton. "The idea of doing this and international thought who at-
tempered forces can be brought together with
through the brotherhood all opposing
a similar manner it is hoped that
and Matthew Woll, vice-president of Lauded as a life

by Lecturer

The exercises of the Institute

The exercise of the Institute

The exercise of the Institute

Who Are You Betting On?

JUNIOR VARIETY TO ROW 150-POUNDERS
IN OPENING RACE

Rush Bybel Relays Between Hol-

FUTURISTIC ATTACKERS

MASCOTS KEEP SECRET

What is usually an important matter of excitelement is the question of mascots. Each year novel and inexpensive devices are always innovatively guarded beforehand by the student body, and these are usually displayed by the

STUDENTS INSPECT

G. E. STEEL FOUND

Course I11 Men See Castings
Made on Large Scale

Last Tuesday, the metal men of Course IH elected members for the Inspecting Committee. They elected Professor G. E. Water-

made casts of steel castings

The Executives of the Institute

The Executives of the Institute

The Executives of the Institute

The Executives of the Institute