Sophomores Defeat Freshmen Boat
In Hotly Contested Field Day Race

Frosh Lose Early Lead Almost Immediately, When Moggio Paces Keough

CLEAN PASSING FEATURES

For the second time the Sophomores and Freshmen were held for downs and the Sophomore line strengthened and the red line held and Walsh kicked to Sealy offside and the Sophs were given the boot to Cullinan who fumbled but Joe Parks.
This was the first oval the only one to succeed in this method often to gain ground, the frosh being few yards of scoring distance. Both triumphed over the frosh eleven 7-0 in the annual Field Day

The frosh were held for downs avid some touchdowns but the Sophomores rolled down the field within striking yards of the goal but failed to carry it. The frosh re-tied when Speller shot ahead of the Soph flyer and the latter was injured in the play and forced to leave the game. Proctor gained 5 yards and

"Only Two Pulls Are Necessary To Decide Supremacy
Of Rope Men"

Outplaying the frosh with ease, the Sophs won a day last of war honors and thereby away two points of the frosh independent final Friday. Two pulls were all that the second year men were needed to gather the necessary victory.

The team presented a colorful pit-ture as they trotted on the field to the music of band, the Sophomores in red jerseys and the freshmen in grey.
