PLANS COMPLETED FOR T. C. A. DRIVE TO START MONDAY

Fraternities and Dormitories Will Be Canvassed on Monday

CHARTS TO BE DISPLAYED

Money Given to T. C. A. To Be Honored Toward Y. M. C. A. Membership

At its meeting yesterday afternoon, the executive committee of the T. C. A. completed the final plans for its campaign. About 100 men will take part in the drive. $8,500 is the goal, which is hoped will be raised by Thursday night.

On Monday night solicitors for the drive will canvas dormitories and fraternities there will be at least two men from each of the various Fraternities. These will be divided into organized areas, an area chairman, after whom the actual solicitation will be made by each fraternity’s own representative. It is hoped to display charts showing statistics regarding the various Fraternities and financial statistics. These charts will be divided into the different classes of students, and this will be the same procedure which has been followed in other drives.

Butterflies for Contributors

A buttefly will be attached to the envelope for contributors, to be used for the letter. In future rooms, in front of which the solicitors have posted their letters, will be a sign containing the names of all contributors. The letter will be properly returned to the contributors themselves.
