FORTUNE COLLEGES ENTER ANNUAL CROSS COUNTRY RUN TODAY

DORMITORY SMOKER IS WELL ATTENDED

300 Men Attend Friday Night "Waters" Dance

Winer Banner

Three hundred dormitory men attended the annual Dormitory Smoker, held in the recreation hall of the Card Pasner Company last Friday evening. Judging by the size of the good food, we are shown the entertainment was well revised.

As usual welcome was extended to new dormitory boys by the members of the Dormitory Board who presented a special song, and Professor L. F. Hamilton, 16, both of whom sang some of the more popular songs of the evening.

Announce Nominations Must Be Made Before Saturday Night

Professor L. F. Hamilton, 16, announced that the nominating committee would meet this Saturday night to consider the names of potential candidates for membership in the smoke.

To Name Junior From Committee

Harry McGovern, a professional comic, will be the first to be considered for membership in the motor club. He has been a member of the smoke for several years and has been very popular with the other members.
