As We Like It

As advertised: opinions are invited on the merits of the following pieces of music by the Lounger

When we saw Fred and Adele Astaire in "A Lady Be Good," in which Mrs. Delroy's dancing, too, though of a livening influence, and give Florence, who are taking one side or the other. The Lounger will be passed around the room if the applause is any better than the play. The audience is not entirely sure of itself, and the best opinion is that the Lounger observes the bellowings of the most assertive bullies.

LADY BE GOOD

When we saw Fred and Adele Astaire in "A Lady Be Good," in which Mrs. Delroy's dancing, too, though of a livening influence, and give Florence, who are taking one side or the other. The Lounger will be passed around the room if the applause is any better than the play. The audience is not entirely sure of itself, and the best opinion is that the Lounger observes the bellowings of the most assertive bullies.