CLUBS NOT TO GO ON BERMUDA TRIP

Financial Difficulties Reason For Failure to Take Trip

The trip will be held today, and the members of the Rabbit Clubs would have had to cover the cost of the trip in order to make it worthwhile. The trip would have been a good opportunity for the members to visit the island and see the sights, but the financial difficulties prevented it from taking place.

On the Bermudas trip, the expenses would have been borne partly by the club membership and partly by the club members who paid the actual expenses. Although a rate, much below the regular rate, was offered the club for the trip to the Bermudas, the rate, however, was still too high. The club decided that individual members could not afford it.

The trip to Bermuda has been abandoned, and the club will have to find another way to spend the money. There are several possibilities, such as a trip to the Bahamas or a domestic vacation. The club will have to consider these options and decide on the best course of action.
