T. C. A. DELEGATE AT EVANSTON GATHERING
Conference Called to Discuss Church Policies

J. H. Wells, '24 has been appointed a delegate to this national denominational Student Conference to be held at the University of Illinois, Evanston, Illinois, December 20 to January 2. Wells will also represent the Evanston Presbyterian Presbyterian Church of Greater Boston.

The purpose of the conference is to consider the work of the denominational boards of the various churches and the work of the churches themselves in the light of the situation of the church today, and to determine what can be done to improve or increase the efficiency of the churches.

All Presbyterian churches will be represented by a member of the Student Conference, and the conference itself will be supervised by the Executive Committee of the Conference.

All present members of the conference will be provided with a number of addresses on pertinent subjects of church activity, given by prominent men, some of whose addresses can be expected to be of great interest.

The student body is invited.

FROSH BREAK EVEN IN WEEK-END GAMES

which might have been possible Tech-