WIMMERS

ICE WARRIORS TO ENCOUNTER MASS. AGGIES JAN. 19

Have Long Period of Idleness Before Taking on The Farmers

HAVE YET TO SCORE WIN

After a two weeks' rest the Tech- nological swimmers are due to meet the Massachusetts Agricultural College Aggies Saturday night. A new practice session has been held at the pool and the Aggies are due to come swimming this evening. The best of all competitive meets is due to take place, and this will be the first showing of both teams since the beginning of practice. To date the Aggies are ahead, an advantage they will have played against three very strong Tech swimmers. Boston College, Boston University, and Harvard.

Their schedule for the next few weeks will be comparatively easy and they should have up a few victories. The Massachusetts Aggies have not dared any games yet this year as they are due to meet the Terriers next Saturday. Indians are due to defeat Connecticut and then the Terriers are on their own. A victory over the Aggies would be a real treat for the Terriers, and it will be a real to be a much better team this year. Indians are due to defeat Connecticut and then the Terriers are on their own. A victory over the Aggies would be a real treat for the Terriers, and it will be a real treat to see how the Terriers can perform. The Terriers are due to defeat the Aggies and then the Tech men will have to make a strong bid for a reversal of the prevailing table.

The swimming meets at the Y. M. C. A. pool across the river and the water condition is expected to be fine. The Terriers are due to defeat the Aggies and then the Tech men will have to make a strong bid for a reversal of the prevailing table.

FENCERS MAY EVENTUALLY COACH

Made Belgian Swordsman For Institution Position

With more and more young men in which to practice before meeting their first collegiate opponents, Harvard, the technological fencing school is beginning to look more like a prominent college. The fencing school has been looking for a prominent coach for some time and finally a new one has been found. The new coach is a Belgian swordsman who has been working with the school for some time. He is due to start his work next week and the fencing school is due to expand its facilities as a result. The fencing school is due to expand its facilities as a result.

SPORTS DOCK

The Boston University swimming team played Harvard tonight in a meet which was due to take place at the pool in the Boston University pool. Harvard won the meet by a score of 36-18. The meet was due to take place at the pool in the Boston University pool. Harvard won the meet by a score of 36-18. The meet was due to take place at the pool in the Boston University pool. Harvard won the meet by a score of 36-18. The meet was due to take place at the pool in the Boston University pool. Harvard won the meet by a score of 36-18.