A GOOD THING ALL WAYS

This ideal economic transaction is one in which both parties benefit. Such a transaction is the affiliation of the finances of Tech and Voo Doo (What Eslebes) throughout the year, as described in this issue. The Athletic Association gains through securing the extra two thousand dollars which it must have to support adequately Tech's athletic program. This increased revenue will enable it to maintain and expand its efforts to achieve a higher standard of success through increased attendance at its performances.

Phosphorus admits his own desire for a good time, and that there are times when the Underwriter is now formidably strong. But in this department of the game, the Underwriter is now formidably strong. But in this department of the game, the Underwriter is not the...
