NOTICES

OFFICIAL

CHORAL SINGING CIRC

Mr. Townsend will meet the class in Choral Sining (411) for the first 45 minutes at 4:05 o'clock on February 17 in room 5-380. The class will meet on Mondays and Fridays throughout the second semester at the above hours.

AIR SERVICE SCHEDULES

Schedule for this term's Air Service courses have been posted on the bulletin board. U. S. NAVAL AIR SERVICE GROUND SCHOOL.

There will be two openers in this subject, every Thursday and Wednesday, respectively.

THE TECH

Wednesday, Feb. 10, 1926

GYM TEAM PREPARES FOR NAVY CONTEST

On Saturday afternoon at Annapolis the varsity gym team will meet the Navy in their first meet of the year. This team has no number of victories, but will experience difficulty in winning as Annapolis always has a fine team.

Five men will make the trip: Capt. Smith, Newcom, Waller, Bur- ton, and either Hudson or Swann, who is an expert on the parallel; while Newcom and Waller have had experiences on the rings. Waller is also a veteran table and Newcom is adept at rope climbing.

The Varsity have been holding prac- tice all of the fall in Walker gym and book about it to give the Navy a good battle. There are about 20 men who are reporting regularly on the squad which is composed of both Varsity and freshmen.

LECTURE SERIES ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Elton, Bigelow, and Whitehead Lowell Institute Speakers

Three series of free lectures are being given by the Lowell Institute during February and March. One series is by Dr. Whitehead, professor of philosophy at Harvard, is entitled "Religion, Its Passing Form and Eternal Truths," and will be held Friday evening in the Walker Museum of Comparative Zoology. The three series will be given at the National Geographic Society on February 15 and continuing until March 6.

Harry M. Bigelow, Curator in the Museum of Comparative Zoology at Harvard, is delivering the second series which will be on ,, ‘Some Eighteenth Century Writers.” They are to be given at the National Geographic Society on February 15 and continuing until March 6.

Henry W. Bigelow, Curator in the Museum of Comparative Zoology at Harvard, is delivering the second series which will be on "Some Eighteenth Century Writers." They are to be given at the National Geographic Society on February 15 and continuing until March 6.

A third series is being delivered at King's Chapel and is divided into two parts. The first, by Alfred North Whitehead, professor of philosophy at Harvard, is entitled "Religion, Its Passing Form and Eternal Truths," and consists of four talks, the first of which was delivered February 1.

CHESS CLUB WILL DISCUSS YEAR PLANS

At its first meeting of the term to be held Friday evening in the Walker Library at 5:15 o'clock, the Chess Club will discuss the year's work and plans for the regular meeting.

SUCCESS TO BE LASTING MUST BE DESERVED

Exactly as it holds its old smokers, Chesterfield wins its new ones-on taste alone

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.