BOSTON MUSICIAN WILL LECTURE ON MUSICAL HISTORICAL

BY Mrs. Arthur Whiting

Mr. Arthur Whiting, well known musical personage of Boston, will present a series of lectures on music and musical history.

efore a large gathering of North eastern students at the Huntington Gymnasium, Mr. Whiting will present a fulllength lecture on the subject of "Music and Musical History." The lectures will be open to the general public and will form part of the regular Musical History Program.

Mr. Whiting, who has been teaching music and musical history in the Boston area for many years, will present lectures on the following topics:

- The evolution of music from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance
- The role of music in the Age of Enlightenment
- The development of classical music in the 19th century
- The influence of jazz and blues on modern music

These lectures are part of a series of lectures on music and musical history that Mr. Whiting has been presenting at the Boston Musical Society. The lectures are open to the public and are free of charge. The lectures will take place on the following dates:

- February 18 at 8:00 PM
- February 25 at 8:00 PM
- March 11 at 8:00 PM
- March 18 at 8:00 PM

All lectures will be held at the Huntington Gymnasium, 111 Huntington Avenue, Boston.

Students, faculty, and interested individuals are encouraged to attend these lectures and to participate in the discussion that follows each lecture.