Basketball Men Taste Defeat in Three Games
Over Week-End Holiday

With three setbacks in a row as the result of the New York trip, the Cardinal and Gray basketball team returned home yesterday defeated. Meeting the Pratt Institute on the latter's court Saturday afternoon, the Montclair stars were defeated 38-24. The next day, the team met with Yale on the latter's court and suffered a 28-72 loss. Finally, the men lost to the New Hampshire team 69-43. After the contest with the University of New Hampshire, the Montclair stars were deadlocked with two points each. The Cardinal and Gray team was without the services of Captain Forrester, who was away. The loss of Forrester was felt in the 135, while Keith, his teammate, was the individual star of the game.

The Summary

On their two day road trip the Tekh-Cardinal and Gray team tasted its first defeat of the season by a 28-72 score to Dartmouth. At New Haven on Friday afternoon, the Cardinal and Gray team gave the New England team a tough time, in fact, it was the third straight time this year that the team came very close to pulling off an upset. On Saturday morning, the team lost to their opponents at the New Haven Yacht Club house, New Haven, from Columbia in the hardest match of the season, 9-1.

Records In Meet With

NEW HAMPSHIRE

As a result of the match against Dartmouth, the Cardinal and Gray team dropped to the number two position in New England, while the New England team rose to the number one position. In fact, the New England team has only one defeat so far this season, while the Cardinal and Gray team has two defeats. The meet was attended by a large audience, and the Cardinal and Gray team gave a good account of itself. The crowd was enthusiastic throughout the meet, and the team was cheered on by the fans.

At Dartmouth, the Cardinal and Gray team fell behind early in the match, and the New England team took control. The New England team scored 14 points in the first five minutes, while the Cardinal and Gray team managed only 6. The New England team continued to dominate, and scored 12 more points in the next five minutes, while the Cardinal and Gray team scored only 1. The New England team went on to score 18 more points in the second half, while the Cardinal and Gray team scored only 11. The New England team won the match 28-72.

In the boxing meet with New Haven, the Cardinal and Gray team lost to their opponents, 14-1. The New Haven team scored 14 points in the first round, while the Cardinal and Gray team scored only 1. In the second round, the New Haven team scored 10 more points, while the Cardinal and Gray team scored only 1. The New Haven team won the match 24-2.

In the meet with the New Hampshire team, the Cardinal and Gray team lost to their opponents, 43-69. The New Hampshire team scored 43 points in the first round, while the Cardinal and Gray team scored only 1. In the second round, the New Hampshire team scored 26 more points, while the Cardinal and Gray team scored only 1. The New Hampshire team won the match 69-43.

Next weekend the Cardinal and Gray team will play against the Harvard team. The Harvard team is one of the top teams in the country, and the Cardinal and Gray team will have their work cut out for them. However, the team is confident and ready to give their best effort. The Cardinal and Gray team will need to work hard to get back to their winning form. The team will need to improve their defense and work on their shooting. The team will also need to work on their conditioning to prepare for the upcoming matches.

Next Saturday evening in the Harvard gymnasium, after the basketball game with the University of New Hampshire and the wrestling meet with Brown, there will be held an informal dance, similar to the one after a basketball game earlier in the season.