WESLEYAN 1926 WINNER

Melodies by the Saxophone Quintetwere Included in Program

Technology's Glee Club carried off second honors in the New England Glee Club contest held last night at Symphony Hall. First place in the contest in which twelve New England Colleges took part was won by Middlebury.

The Intercolligate Glee Contest is sponsored by the University Glee Club at Harvard and is the only one of its kind in this part of the country.

It was opened by the Notre Dame Glee Club, who sang several popular and semi-classical songs.

Assumes Position Left Vacant

The death of Dr. W. H. Towner '28 has left a vacancy in the editorial staff of the Middlebury Campus, which has taken the position of Associate Editor.

The new editor has been rapidly making himself known to the patrons of the publication, having only been associated with the paper for a short time. Although the paper is in the process of being set up for the coming year, he is keeping the campus informed of the everyday events in the university.

The paper, under the direction of Dr. Towner, has been a great success, and the new editor is expected to continue this success.
