AMHERST Mermen ARE VICTORS

Lord Jeffs Top Beavers By Winning Tank Relay With Lead of Few Inches

M. I. T. swimmers lost 58-38 to Amherst Saturday afternoon in the annual varsity meet. Amherst was thoroughly outclassed in this meet, with the lead constantly shuffled from side to side throughout the contest.

Glover was the outstanding performer of the day. He won first in the 50 and 100 yard dash, and also gained 1 point for his team in the 100 yard free style and the 400 yard free style relay. The Beavers also gave out 1 point for a team relay in the second heat of the 440 yard free style relay. The team was headed by John Thorne, and the score of 1 point is the first time in the history of the meet that the M. I. T. team has failed to win any points in this event.

CRIMSON YEARLIARDS Trounce WRENCHES

Harvard's freshmen wrestlers outdistanced the Beaver freshman crew at the Harvard Gym 21-11 on Saturday afternoon. The Beavers were lead by Captain John Williams and the 170 lb. M. I. T. entrants to gain dual victory.

Brighton of the Engineers and Lewin of the Crimson engaged in a battle for the lead of the meet. At the end of the regular time when neither man had been able to secure a decision, an overtime session was agreed upon. Two periods of five minutes each were fought, and the result remained a draw.

Top in quality—first in popularity

Experienced smokers have proved it. Discriminating tobacco lovers by the million recognize in each day and every evening as the friendly Camels are lighted. There simply is no better cigarette made. The choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grow for Camels—and such blending for taste and fragrance! Only the largest tobac cosmopolitan organization in the world could produce a cigarette like Camel.

In terms of popularity, Camel cigarette quality has reflected itself in the greatest preference ever given a cigarette. There never was a tobacco word so famed, or a cigarette so good. First in popula
