Johnny Chase, center ice man on this year's sensational Harvard hockey team, has been chosen to lead the Crimson during the 1922 season. Chase hails from Milton in a hockey play-er, but has not shown much of the Yar-va sent his in his second year. This year he was expected to center at at the pivot position but this was not the case for the final game during the last season.

Tud Jones, Head Coach of the Yale University football team, has announced that the new rules adopted for this sport last season will be carried over into the new season. He was out of the game and the post on the last post back 10 yards would tend to eliminate much of the overcrowding on kicking. Both Kisto Rocki, Notes Wise Young of Penn, are likewise notified with much of the changes, the exceptions being that the 20-yard line is cut down to the 5-yard line.

At the present time indications seem promising for a good showing by the New England interior. The New England Indoor team is to be one of the favorites in the tournament.
