T. C. A. has received 1100 coats to be given to needy college graduates. Course V TA'a men who went to New York at the end of February to take up their studies with the New York Telephone Company, (as described in an earlier issue) are now working with Mr. Leopold Peckh, '21, and when their duties carry them to all telephone offices, also at the various places recently opened in this city to the present, and to all varieties of homes, from beautiful Fifth Avenue apartments to the tenements along the Kingsbridge road. It will be a great treat for the students to see Mr. Peckh, '21, who is a contemporary of the T. C. A., and the T. C. A. has received 250 coat hangers for free distribution. One to each student who is a member of the T. C. A. in good standing. The T. C. A. has received a call for a student to join the organization. This group, which includes John L. Esf and Robert L. Roach '28, a branch of the T. C. A., is eligible for membership. This group is known as the T. C. A. as a result of the formation of the Student Union and methods of providing theoretical training while in college. They are training to enter the legal profession and are distributing this information. The T. C. A. has received a call for a student to join the organization. This group, which includes John L. Esf and Robert L. Roach '28, a branch of the T. C. A., is eligible for membership. This group is known as the T. C. A. as a result of the formation of the Student Union and methods of providing theoretical training while in college. They are training to enter the legal profession and are distributing this information.