Medford Team Shows Its Versatility By Taking The Measure of Brockton High

Medford High took the Eastern Massachusetts High School basketball championship by a score of 28 to 18 over Brockton High on Monday afternoon in the opening round of the tournament held in the gymnasium. Although Brockton had its share of the ball, it was never able to get a steady offensive rhythm going in the face of Medford’s tight defense. The Brockton men knew how to hit the basket, and consequently were too strong for sufficient counters to defeat Medford. The latter team covered the floor well, but had a good deal of difficulty in finding the basket.

Medford and Harvard held an annual invitational game on Saturday afternoon. The outcome of the game was not decided until the final minutes, but Medford won, 38 to 28. This was the first game of the season for Medford and the final game of the season for Harvard. Medford had a number of good players, and Harvard had a number of good players as well. The game was very close, and both teams fought hard to come out on top. The final score was a narrow victory for Medford, 38 to 28.

Return Meet Is Lost By Narrow Margin—Marshall’s Fool

Proven Costly

Followers of Coach R. M. Marshall’s boxing team were surprised to hear of the defeat suffered by the boys at Durham, New Hampshire, Saturday evening. The defeat was a narrow one, and caused many to think that the team had not made much of a showing. The opening round was held in the gymnasium of the Huntington School, conquerors of the world. The only fair allowing the boxing team to take the competition was the regular practice (and the defense, all the other men will certainly start soon.

Camel is the understanding smoke

Camel is always the friendly cigarette. In days of tense achievement, in moments of joy and gaity, a lighted Camel will spur you to the stars with its cool, crisp fire. Camels understand your every mood.

A purchase of Camels brings you the choice of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. Blended by skilled experts into the world’s most popular smoke, and the best.

Unfeathered quality is the distinguishing mark of Camel.

No matter what the price you pay, you can buy no better cigarettes than Camels. Smoke them as frequently as you please. You will never be left with a cigarette after-taste; Camels aren’t made that way. That is why experienced smokers everywhere demand them. That is why millions thrill to three short words: "Have a Camel!"
