PADDLE FIGHT OPENS JUNIOR WEEK

BEAVER-B. U. GAME FOLLOWS ANNOUNCEMENT OF WINNERS IN TURSSE FOR TECHNIQUES

BEAVERS FAVORED TO WIN IN INITIAL BASEBALL CLASSIC

Heavy Hitting Will Probably Feature Closely Fought Diamond Contest

M. I. T. HURLERS FAVORED

Baseball opens its official season on Tech Field tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock when the Beavers clash with Boston University. After opening the campaign with a 9-3 win over the Skeeters on Tuesday afternoon, the 9-3 win over Boston University gave the Beavers a decided advantage going into the second term, and that is where they will be found again.

Since the season opened, the Beavers have been working hard to improve their pitching, and the results are beginning to show. The Beavers' pitching has been steady, and the defense has been solid. They will face a tough challenge from Boston University, but the Beavers are confident of a victory.

The game will be a close one, with the Beavers favored to come out on top. The Beavers' hitting has been strong, and they will be looking to continue that trend against Boston University.

Technique Rules Allow No Spiked Shoes

1. To enter the right you must have a Technique sign-up and a paid entry fee.
2. All contestants should wear spikes, no spiked shoes allowed.
3. Contestants will line up along the ropes. At the first signal the paddle will be tossed. The right to enter the contest will be decided at a roll of some mysterious source.
4. The winning side of the paddle means that all contestants are to go back to the ropes. At the next shot a paddle will be tossed to determine the right to enter. The winning side will rush for it.
5. If you get a paddle report at the desk to obtain credit for it.

FIERCE FIGHTING ALWAYS SEEN IN TECHNIQUE RUSH

Great Court To Be The Scene Of Initial Event Of Junior Week

TEA DANCE WILL FOLLOW

Technology's annual festival from the period, during which the Techies are introduced in the Great Court tomorrow afternoon and the annual Lieutenants' tea dance is held in the center of the Great Court. This year, at 11:30 A.M., the Lieutenants' tea dance will be held in the center of the Great Court, and at 12:30 P.M., the tea dance will also be held.

The Lieutenants' tea dance is always a popular event, and it is eagerly anticipated by the Techies. The tea dance will be followed by a tea, which will feature a variety of refreshments. The tea dance is open to all Techies, and it is a great opportunity to meet new people and catch up with old friends.

When the tea dance is over, the Lieutenants' tea dance will begin. The Lieutenants' tea dance is a formal event, and it is attended by all the Lieutenants of the Institute. The Lieutenants' tea dance is always a highlight of the Junior Week, and it is a great way to end the day.

The Junior Week is a time for fun and relaxation, and it is a great opportunity to bond with your Techie friends. Whether you are a Techie, or just a friend of a Techie, the Junior Week is a time to enjoy yourself and have a good time.
