COLEGIATE STUFF IS PRESS DEMAND

Undergraduates To Contribute Student Outlook On Morals

A recent wave of interest among the newspaper reading public about college students' views on current social issues has caused a great deal of turnover in the student population. The newspapers of the country, both large and small, have featured articles expressing the feelings of the students.

Big Crowd Sees Exhibits Put On By Departments

Machine Tool Laboratory Is Big Attraction to The Curious

(Continued from Page 1)

metal, the proximity to high grade ore and the general arrangement of the mill and office buildings.

In building the fourth floor, the main hall will be located in the center of the building and the main entrance will be to the right of the main hall. The main entrance will be the main entrance and will lead directly into the main hall. The main hall will be the main hall and will lead directly into the main hall. The main hall will be the main hall and will lead directly into the main hall.

The second floor will be occupied by the library, the Museum of the Sub-committee on Excursions.

The sub-committee is composed of a number of western museums and is interested in the work of the Department of Science and Technology.

Although the exhibits were chosen and practically continuous throughout the long period the larger number of exhibits were chosen for the exhibit. The exhibits were chosen for the exhibit. The exhibits were chosen for the exhibit. The exhibits were chosen for the exhibit.

16 MEN INITIATED INTO BETA PI

At the meeting of The Beta Pi, continuing honorary fraternity, 16 men were elected to membership, bringing the total membership to 70. The members were: John A. Johnson, Jr., George P. de Thierry, Elliott R. Barker '98, John W. Howland, Paul M. Wiswall of New York; and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98, and eight were: Robert H. Richards, Charles W. Loomis of Detroit; Neal E. McQuillen, D. R. Linstead, John W. Howland, Elliott R. Barker '98.

The LOUNGER

(Continued from Page 1)

In the interest of those who have earned their numerals may be made in Room 309 of the Medical Department.

Appointments for this examination will be made in Room 309 of the Medical Department.

It is hoped that every Senior will avail himself of this opportunity to make an appointment for his own physical examination.