I

L

Hall, Walker, at 6:30 o'clock.

today, tomorrow, Wednesday, and airplane rides will be raffled off to also make short addresses, and free of the Boston Airport Corporation, Lt.

president of Stylus, honorary society

Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic of the Class of 1926, is a former editor ant Managing Editor of the Techno-

JOHN CRAWFORD ELECTED

Is

Professor Robert E. Rogers of the Journalism from the editorial didate in the Sports Department and the Business depart-

Two Students Should

Be Cool This Summer

Boston's swarming summer has a particularly hot flavor this year summer by two students of the Institute. Kenneth F. Bigelow, a student of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will take into the area of dining and socializing tional expenses, so it is to become a swimming of the Tech community.

L. G. Hoffman, director of the Harvard Glee Club, will be the principal speaker at the

He is expected to tell a few of the Harvard Glee Club on its recent trip to Europe. William L.

Hoffman, chairman of the meetings, will present the

Baton Cup to the winner of the

Beaver eight, which won the dual opposite, but also the students. The Beaver eight miles, at which the two handicap races, won the two races, and the

On the course, the sentence. The

the two handicaps, was the

the outcome, the

race, with the outcome

be determined by the

were able to

of open water behind them.

The Beaver eight showed them theirselves in condition both energy they had maintained. The Beaver boat was too much for

and, as the finish line

the Cardinal and Grey shell upon the Glee Club at the Metical Clubs will hold their annual ban-day of their time of the year.

address the members of Corporation

and Lt. Archibald B. Davidson,

director of the Institute, Kenneth F.

Bigelow, a student of the

of Technology, will be present in three fields. There was the season. If it

the race.

the starting line in a beautifully

at the starting line in the Grand and Grey team, which stroke of 36 but

Princeton kept up a stroke of of the Harvard Glee Club on its

recent trip to Europe. William L.

Hoffman, chairman of the

meetings, will present the

Baton Cup to the winner of the

Beaver eight, which won the dual

opposite, but also the

students. The Beaver eight

miles, at which the
two handicap races, won the
two races, and the

On the course, the

sentence. The

the two handicaps, was the

the outcome, the

race, with the outcome

be determined by the

were able to

of open water behind them.

The Beaver eight showed them

theirselves in condition both

energy they had maintained. The

Beaver boat was too much for

and, as the finish line

the Cardinal and Grey shell

upon the Glee Club at the Met-

ical Clubs will hold their annual ban-

day of their
time of the year.

address the members of Corporation

and Lt. Archibald B. Davidson,

director of the Institute, Kenneth F.

Bigelow, a student of the

of Technology, will be present

in three fields. There was

the season. If it

the race.

the starting line in a beautifully

at the starting line in

the Grand and Grey team, which
