TO HOLD PULGATORY GALLOP THIS FRIDAY

Costume Ball will Be Last of Archibald's Dances

Once again will the Technological decorations be adorned with costumes of the gayest creations of their designer, Mr. Carl E. S. Petersen. This time the costumes are inspired by the theme of "The Technological Galleon," and the annual event will be held on Friday night, Oct. 15. The theme is no more than a background against which the costumed guests of the dance will revolve, as the ballroom itself is the scene of the action. The costume theme will make itself manifest through the details of the costumes of the guests and the decorations of the ballroom, and the faculty and students who will come in costume to the dance will mingle with the members of the Archibald Society, who also will be in costume.

JOAN MELVINSON

The sudden silence that follows this announcement is explained by the reference, and the reference comments favorably on the team as a whole. "The Tech baseball team," as the reference points out, "is no longer a matter of doubt."
