INSTITUTE EIGHTS
LOOK FORWARD TO WINNING SEASON

Mass Meeting Is Planned For
Wednesday Afternoon
At Boat House

NEW SHELLS PROCURED

Once again the call for crew enrollment and the announcement from head coach Bill Haines that all aspirants for the Cardinal and Gray eights are expected to report at the boat house during the first week of school. Explanations, of course, will quickly be posted on the bulletin or the new scullers will be read to join the boat house equipment last spring.

Boat House Equipment

This season Technology will have the best rowing equipment in her hands. Two new drills from Oxford and Cambridge have been added during the summer, bringing the total fleet now at 70. Also since last fall a new hull and coxswain have been engaged. The entire outfit is ready for immediate practice. The new hull to which the oarsmen have given the name "PISCES," will be chosen by the crew for the coming season. Other oarsmen will pick up their former positions from the previous crew. Nicks of the Intramural crew, last year's captains Ewen Chapple and Marynor Thomas. A record crew is expected to take this spring's title. Many new men are expected to become members of the team. The "COOP" is the official source of required equipment, the "INSTITUTE EIGHTS" doing their best to finish them. Not only that, but think how much better you will be on the river when you know that you are a member of one of the oldest continuous rowing teams in the country.

INSTITUTE EIGHTS

The base for last year's purchases will be ready for distribution October 13, 1927. Dividends on last year's business will be paid on cash purchases and checks opened before November 1 of each year. The profits are divided among the customers who join. Checks are cashed for "COOP" members only. The "COOP" is the official source of required textbooks and supplies in every course.
