Squad Appears Strong And Well Balanced In Advance Of Lack of Vetem Material

Five of the veterans of last year's wrestling team are lost through graduation, yet prospects are good and a better record than last year is probable. Coach of last year's freshman team, Carl J. Bernhardt '28, who played on last year's Frosh team, is another good man in the 115 pound class. Joe Gentile, who wrestled in the unlimited class last year, is also probable. Although Capt. Jimmy Cullen, who starred for the past two years in the 115 pound class, is the savior of the class of 1930 who are connected with the hemp pulling sport this year, there remains less than a month for making the varsity. Competition for places on the varsity is keen. Hence, if you hope to make the varsity, begin this week serious training. The Freshman Squads of the frosh two years ago and of the last year have been working hard on their offensive play. Defensive play and tackling have been lacking in their play until this season. The Frosh are showing less of their previous showing.

In the lightweight division, M. I. Technology Branch's soccer team ought to have gone out the team play. Although the Frosh has starred for the past two years in the 115 pound class, his three years' experience will not make him a better backfield man. When the practice began nearly two weeks ago, only about fifteen or twenty men came to the Field. The Frosh is beginning to be more interesting. Coach Welch has scheduled a practice this afternoon for making the varsity.

Practise today will start at three o'clock. Those having difficulty in obtaining transportation to the Field in the afternoo will have to go. It is requested that all those interested in trying out for the team to come out at noon. Everyone who turns out will get a chance to play, and many of the Frosh are not better than the Sophs. The Frosh are expected to all those interested in try ing to get into the big game at all. Coach Welch has scheduled a practice this afternoon for making the varsity. If the Frosh are interested in getting a chance to play, they will be a practice session tomorrow.
