PARENTS OF LOWER CLASSMEN WARNED OF STRICT FIELD DAY RULES BY PRESIDENT STRATTON

ANY PARADING OFF GROUNDS TO MERIT SPEEDY EXPULSION

President Stratton Gives Full Support to Institute Committee

No Gas On Field Day

Letters have been sent to the parents and guardians of every member of the Class of 1931, reminding President Samuel W. Stratton of the Institute that the action which is being taken by the Institute Committee of the Corporation is to be done at the request of the Committee and not under the authority of the Institute authorities, as follows:

The actual governing of the students is the student government, working in consultation with representatives from the Faculty and Alumni Association. Among their recommendations for the conduct of future Field Days was

"In order to protect the good name of the Institute

there shall be no parades or demonstrations by any character off the Institute grounds, and that the President shall have the authority to make executive decisions on their support this decision by giving due regard to the wishes of the students and the parents of the students." The Institute authorities have

TOMORROW LAST DAY FOR MEDICAL EXAMS

125 freshmen, Many Transfers Are Still Delinquent

"Appointments for medical examinations will close today. All freshmen or transfers still delinquent will be liable to a reexamination." This is the warning sent out by Dr. Leo W. Cruchley, Assistant Director of the Medical Department, as the final day draws near.

"It is very important that those who are apparently ruled to make their appointments today or tomorrow. Get the examination out of the way before the next day. It is impossible for your students who will be transferred to take advantage of them. The Institute directs a medical record for the student who is found to be delinquent.
