Basketball Team Begins Practice In Preparation For Difficult Schedule

After the recent rest, Technology enthusiasts will once again take out their skates and journey to the ice ring at the Boston Arena. The Engineers will be organizing this season’s team with the same enthusiasm as for the past. It is not yet certain if coach Bill Stewart will be present, but in any event Captain M. I. T. Hoopster Beidler will give a brief outline of the plans for the coming season.

In spite of the fact that there are only two first-string veterans left from last year’s squad, namely Crosby and Dolpin, Cardinal and Gray fans are looking forward to a winning season. There is very good material from the ranks of last year’s substitutes and those players coupled with several promising members of the team. The 27 yard punt which should considerably be better than last year’s punt.
