Robert B. Freeman Chosen as Freshman President in Elections on Wednesday

Robert B. Freeman of Portland, Me., was chosen as the freshman president last night when he defeated his opponent, 25 to 23. Freeman spoke on the campus, his chief point being the importance of the freshman in the college, while his opponent, an ex-student, was not. In Freeman's speech, he mentioned that the freshman should take an active part in the collegiate life of the college and that he was not interested in the program of the Tech Dramshop.
