OUR "CRACKER BARREL" MOVEMENTS

IS THE average American lost without some great and over- whelming cause? The history of our country seems to be a continuous record of causes and their effects, particularly in recent years. It really doesn't seem to matter in the least what that cause may be as long as it is possible to become absorbed in it and to transcend oneself in vigorous and not too complimentary language.

The modern period of great movements seems to have started with the modern period of great movements...and we all massage our gums; Mr. Ford evolves his car and we all think we're making great progress. The florists sold "cracker barrel" stage again as yet. The evidence of this decline is in the growing asininity of the causes and unreasoning we continue to buy as long as they continue to sell them.
