A. A. Fufids `for the equipment collected a team to represent Technol-duced by the Polo Club. .. About 100 men have visionally recognized by the M. I. T. ina and around Boston.

There are about 12 experienced polo players, the remain-undone to handling a mallet. At pres-the on the club is playing hot among classmates but by the beginning of next term will have seiciency in any of the schools in and around Boston. the polo clubs had its first practice on horses at the riding school. There were five games scheduled with the nearby schools of Tu-s, Livingstone Galloup '23, Thomas C. Lamn, and Charles T. Wiggleshworth '30, Fredent at this practice, Paul N. Fonde

Among these 30 there are about 12

Any men wishing to try for the team

Wednesday.

George M. Coohan has been made for

SCIENCE LECTURE

Riding School

By Necessity of Seating

The

But not interesting.”

Challenged the intelligence and fired of who did the killings, why and how,

of the preacher with Mrs. Mills intro-self-interest elements. Anything to increase and that initiation is a schol-were favored by some because it gave Deferred rushing and initiation the new term time to look over the vain text shows that first place papers, and that thoroughness of preparation and there is a saying among the the fact that fine literature can exterit will be printed in a

Next Train

CAMEL

To smoke wisely and well, choose Camels

There’s an irresistible reason for choosing this famous cigarette. Not for its popularity alone, but for that superior quality which is its secret.

CAMEL wins its prestige with modern smokers by forthright value. It is rolled of the choicest tobaccos that money can buy, and its blending is the taste and fragrance triumph of tobacco

The Camel smoker is tobacco fit. He has the best, with no scrimping or denial of cost. There are no four-wheel brakes on these cigarettes.

Select Camel for smoking pleasure, and you’ll find distinguished company.

Particularly, modern smokers have elected it on the principle of superiority.

“Have a Camel!”

© 1931