Design of Warning. His contributions are also shown in his worry-about his friends. The Institute of Technology, on which he has been working for nearly three years, is the one of which he is proud.
In 1914, he is the author of many papers, and is a member of various national technical societies. Among them are the American Institute of Architects, which awarded him the honor of being a Life Member in 1930.

In 1922 and again in 1923 he was Chairman of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics as a member of the Institute of Technology. The Institute of Technology is an
