VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Coming Year

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.

VOLUME XLVIII OF THE TECH
WILL BE MANAGED BY HAMLIN, ROUSE, YOUNG, PFORZHEIMER

Managing Board for Volume XLVIII OF THE TECH

ASSOCIATE BOARD FOR COMING YEAR

ALSO ANNOUNCED

STAFF PROMOTIONS MADE

At the annual banquet of the Tech, held last Thursday night at the Harvard Club, Ruch 39, General Manager, announced the name of the student who will fore the volume XLVIII of the paper. The board will consist of: Ruch 39, Editor-in-Chief; Spahr 38, Managing Editor; Williams 29, Business Manager; and Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

Three new members of the Board of Directors have been elected this year: David C. Smith 30, General Manager; William G. Young 29, Managing Editor; and Arthur C. Pforzheimer 30, Business Manager.

A new feature for the coming year is the "One-Horse Press" which will be published in every issue, written by each of the four regular columnists of THE TECH.

WOODEN PARTITION IN BUILDING THREE

a

A considerable amount of attention has been given to the construction of the new wooden partition in Building Three. The partition will be of the usual thickness and will be of the same material as the existing ones.