BEAVER QUINTET CRUSHES HUSKIES
Cardinal and Gray Wrestlers Will Clash With Tufts Outfit Tonight

Allen, Lawson, Reydens
Play Sensational Game; Rout Northeastern 56-25

Ending their extended losing streak by more than doubling Northeastern's score, the Cardinal and Gray basketball team won last Tuesday night's game before a good-sized crowd in the Hangar gym. The Huskies were not the equal of the team that inflicted defeat on last year's Technology's squad, but they fought from the first minute to the final whistle. By breaking the jinx which has deprived them of the last games by the narrowest of margins the team satisfied the audience that it is still a team to be considered in the remainder of the schedule.

Edgall Allen was really the individual star of the game. He scored twenty-three points on ten goals and three free throws. He was well seconded by Elmer Lawson, who took enough time off from his position as guard to steal in his baskets and a free throw. The overwhelming power of the Cardinals and Grays was shown by the fact that the four Classes were matched, but there was no doubt as to the outcome of the game after the first few minutes. Edgall had the card and more accurate of the two teams, but his
