TECHNOLOGY AND BROWN CLUBS WILL MEET ON FRIDAY

Annual Combined Concert To Be Re-established with Providence Club

TECHNITIANS WILL PLAY
Will Be Followed by Dancing—Brown Intercollegiate

On Friday night, Feb. 17, the Technology and Brown Musicals Clubs will hold an annual combined concert in the Bromo-Seltzer Tower. This is a revival of the practice that was started some years ago. Apparently the concert at that time was not a success, as there is no record of it having been given last year. The program has not yet been fully worked out, but it is expected to be announced in the near future.

Following the concert, the Technicians will furnish the rink for a dance to be held in the same location. This has been a successful feature of all the concerts which have been given in recent years. Tickets are on sale every day from the ticket booth in the center of the court until 2 o'clock, and are $5 per person, or $8 per couple.

This concert will be the only appearance of the Brown Glee Club this season, and the Tech's have taken advantage of this opportunity to get the Brown Glee Club to come to the campus. The Blue and Gold Glee Club of Brown also has a specialty act which will be given.

The Brown Glee Club, one of the oldest college musical groups in the country, has been a contender in the Intercollegiate Musical Congress nearly every year, and will again be a contender this year. It is expected that the combined concert will give the Tech Glee Club an opportunity for both the American Glee Club and the Tech Glee Club to show off to the advantage of one another and perhaps to show off to the advantage of the Tech Glee Club.

Many of the Tech students are interested in the music of the Brown Glee Club and are anxious to hear it. The Tech Glee Club is more than willing to have the Brown Glee Club come and share its concert. It is expected that the concert will open up many opportunities for the two groups to work together.

The Tech Glee Club will be directed by Dr. John B. Thomas, who is a well-known authority on the musical arts. The Brown Glee Club will be directed by Mr. Ralph E. Johnson, who is also a well-known authority on the musical arts.

The concert will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will continue until 11:00 o'clock. The Tech Glee Club will present its special act, and the Brown Glee Club will present its special act. The Tech Glee Club will then present its regular act, and the Brown Glee Club will present its regular act. The concert will conclude with a dance to be held in the same location.
