To the Editor of THE TECH:

At the M. I. T. vs. Harvard basketball game last week, the Institute gained a new look by the way in which the game was played. The Institute's basketball team has been a source of pride to the students and the technical community for many years. Their efforts have been recognized by numerous awards and accolades. The team's performance in the game reflects the dedication and hard work of its members. The Institute hopes to continue supporting and encouraging the basketball team's success. Thank you for reading this open forum.

Sincerely,

METROPOLITAN

"The Secret River," starring Pola Negri in a new romantic role, is the feature picture at the Metropolitan this week. It is a novel version of the eternal triangle with the sunny background of California. Pola Negri's performance is a masterpiece, her skill as an actress is simply incredible. The movie is a treat for all who enjoy a good story and a beautiful performance. Check it out at the Metropolitan!

SEEK YE NO FURTHER, DIOPGENES...

Two johhies Diogenes was a Greek who left his fruit stand for the commendable purpose of quoting for honesty by good old-fashioned lamp-light. And now, loud and ever dearer, rings the cry from the house-top: "Diogenes— throw away your lantern!— here's an honest cigarette! Have a Camel!"

Camels have but one vision 12— to push the smokeless of the world into the smoky, smoky mouths of a million smokers. Fill your every smokepot with a cool cloud of Camel smoke, and hear it sing out— "Eureka!" (from the Greek, "Eureka," meaning—"Oboy, here it is!")
