Visitors Collect Three Decisions, Two Falls In Meet in Hangar Gym

Springfield College successfully invaded Cambridge Saturday night when its grapplingists defeated the Institute's Varsity 29 to 10 in a two-hour session. The visitors scored three decisions and two falls to win by a decisive margin.

The first event on the card resulted in a win for Technology when Pyrline defeated his man to win a unanimous decision. The second event was a\nclose but the 145 pound class but their illusions were dispelled by the next two defeats in the 125 and 133 weight classes, respectively. The third event, decided by the visitor's triumphant performance, was a decisive margin.

The decisiveness margin was entirely different from the previous one, but the visitors collected three decisions and two falls to win by a decisive margin.

BEAVERS PLACE IN N. E. TITLE RACES

Capt. Cy, Maegher, Marshall Fay, Lee Thorsen and Pete Kirwin Score

From continued Page 1

Throughout, winning easily in 16

minutes. Decisions, Two Falls

The first event on the card resulted in a win for Technology when Pyrline defeated his man to win a unanimous decision. The second event was a close but the 145 pound class but their illusions were dispelled by the next two defeats in the 125 and 133 weight classes, respectively. The third event, decided by the visitor's triumphant performance, was a decisive margin.

The decisiveness margin was entirely different from the previous one, but the visitors collected three decisions and two falls to win by a decisive margin.

BEAVERS PLACE IN N. E. TITLE RACES

Capt. Cy, Maegher, Marshall Fay, Lee Thorsen and Pete Kirwin Score

From continued Page 1

Throughout, winning easily in 16

minutes. Decisions, Two Falls

The first event on the card resulted in a win for Technology when Pyrline defeated his man to win a unanimous decision. The second event was a close but the 145 pound class but their illusions were dispelled by the next two defeats in the 125 and 133 weight classes, respectively. The third event, decided by the visitor's triumphant performance, was a decisive margin.

The decisiveness margin was entirely different from the previous one, but the visitors collected three decisions and two falls to win by a decisive margin.

BEAVERS PLACE IN N. E. TITLE RACES

Capt. Cy, Maegher, Marshall Fay, Lee Thorsen and Pete Kirwin Score

From continued Page 1

Throughout, winning easily in 16

minutes. Decisions, Two Falls

The first event on the card resulted in a win for Technology when Pyrline defeated his man to win a unanimous decision. The second event was a close but the 145 pound class but their illusions were dispelled by the next two defeats in the 125 and 133 weight classes, respectively. The third event, decided by the visitor's triumphant performance, was a decisive margin.

The decisiveness margin was entirely different from the previous one, but the visitors collected three decisions and two falls to win by a decisive margin.

BEAVERS PLACE IN N. E. TITLE RACES

Capt. Cy, Maegher, Marshall Fay, Lee Thorsen and Pete Kirwin Score

From continued Page 1

Throughout, winning easily in 16

minutes. Decisions, Two Falls

The first event on the card resulted in a win for Technology when Pyrline defeated his man to win a unanimous decision. The second event was a close but the 145 pound class but their illusions were dispelled by the next two defeats in the 125 and 133 weight classes, respectively. The third event, decided by the visitor's triumphant performance, was a decisive margin.

The decisiveness margin was entirely different from the previous one, but the visitors collected three decisions and two falls to win by a decisive margin.