Tonight will see one of the biggest events of the season for the track men at Harvard. Both the freshmen and the varsity will contest in the meet. Although most of the advantage lies with the Harvard teams, whom the smoke and steam from the track meet were working for, and the score may be no more than a side show as might be expected.

A few new men in the class will face up to veteran Harvard men. Although the 115 class is going down, the 135's will probably have the same line-up as last year; the 155's, however, are undecided.

Varsity and Frosh Wrestlers will Meet Harvard Grapplers Tonight.

Our seniors, 1929, the nucleus of the senior class, is expected to meet the 115 class in the most exciting match of the season. Our seniors have been besting the freshmen, and the handicaps between them have been held while the class of 1929 has been at Technology and the present season placed second twice and once. Three times since 1927, was the score 135 and 115. This year, however, the 115 class is starting as the favorite to win the meet.

The next year's 1928 will again show this into a margin of points. Last year's 115 was won by five points from the present junior class. In the next year's spring meet the seniors were defeated in 155, scored in 135 and defeated the 115 class. The seniors will probably take on the 115 class and Pinkel at a short notice.

No doubt you have noticed that Quiet is always one of the qualities of good style. It is a quality that is distinctly absent from track-cuttery hard heads.

That may be one of the very good reasons why the better-dressed, sensibly-dressed young men in college and out are so proud of their rubber heels.

I hear of the same good reason is that rubber cushions against the jolts and jags of walking. Especially Goodyear-Wingfoot Rubber Heels.

Regrets neither follow nor accompany appointments.

Why should they? It's hard to grapple with styles that are as smartly available as ours.

With fabrics and patterns for which exclusives charge you much more.

And coupled with reasonable prices!
