216 VISITORS TO BE HERE PREP NIGHT

GROUP WILL HAVE WELCOME ADDRESS FROM DR. STRATTON

Quadangle Club To Conduct Inspection Tour of Institute

Supper at Fraternities

In response to forty-two letters sent by the committee in charge of arrangements for the supper given at thirty-two fraternities for schools around Boston extending an invitation to students to attend this get-together of men interested in coming to Technology, acceptances from 284 students representing 29 schools have been received. Those who are Senior T. 1. T., who entered the gym, were bid welcome by the Fraternity students, and a large number of the students were in the gym, having arrived both by bus and car. The Fraternity students passed out programs to those who were in the gym and gave a lively entertainment with songs, skits, and the like.

SARGENT CONCERT WILL BE TONIGHT

Tech-Sargent Combined Clubs Present Concert At Institute

Tonight's annual Tech-Sargent concert will consist of a number of songs and skits, in that our new-formed Institute Band will give its first performance. The school chamber singers, which have our championship, will present a number of their songs. The Institute Band will also be on hand, and a number of comedians and skaters will give a number of their songs. The concert will be a great success, and the Institute Band will give a number of their songs.

OPEN HOUSE DATE IS SET AS APRIL 18

Institute Body To Host Baseball Club Sell Dance Tickets

According to the report made at the meeting of the Institute Committee yesterday by Dr. Henry Zimm 75, student in the professional schools, the date set for the annual Open House this year is April 18. In view of the success of the Ex-housings in 1927, the committee has decided to continue the open house for the current year. The committee is also planning to give the students permission to join the open houses in the future.

ALUMNI CHOOSE 21 MEMBERS

President Lowell of Harvard Is Extended Membership

Honorary membership in the Alumni Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was awarded to twenty-one members of the Harvard Alumni Association at the Alumni Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The list of those who received the honorary membership was presented to the Harvard Alumni Association by President Lowell of Harvard, who was also present at the meeting.

CARDINAL AND GRAY'S QUINTET EXPECT SPEEDY CONTEST FROM CLEVER NEW HAMPSHIRE OUTFIT

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.

Runkle Acquires New Musical (7) Instrument

Peaceful conditions in Frankie Runkle's life are to be disturbed, as he has acquired a new musical instrument, a set of harmonica windings, which he has named the "Gray's Quintet." The instrument is to be exhibited on the first floor of the Institute's music building. Frankie Runkle, who is in charge of the Institute's music building, is known to be a musical student and a lover of music.