STOP SALE BEFORE FRIDAY

Barbary Coast Orchestra From Dartmouth Will Furnish Dance Music

Arrangements have been made by the Sophomore Dance Committee to have the illumination for the annual Sophomore Dance which will be held this Friday night in the Louis XIV Room of the Hotel Boardman. Arrangements have been made for four large spotlights operated from the balcony, creating an effect of lightness known as "moonlight dance." To make this more effective, the pupils themselves hanging from the balcony will also be outfitted with lights. The committee believes that the effect will be one of beauty.

Hull Saturday

Finishing their first complete week of practice the Sophomore Outdoor Play will arrive for the opening of the show Saturday in a big stage production. The girls will be the stars of the show, which will be billed as "The Hullabaloo of Hull Saturday." Prizes for the best two acts will be awarded to the two winning groups, and the whole play will be presented again next week. The show is being put on by the Sophomore Council and will be held in the school auditorium. The net proceeds will go to the Sophomore Council and will be used for future shows. The show is being produced by Miss Alice M. Keane, who is also in charge of the Sophomore Council.

Debaters Defeat New Hampshire in Seventh Victory

INSTITUTE TEAM TAKES ON OPPONENT IN MAIN FRIDAY

Continuing their winning streak, the Debaters also defeated their seventh consecutive victory on Monday afternoon, having won the last two debates last year, and the five debates in which they participated against New Hampshire University, the last of which was won by the Bovardian. The Debaters have won the last five exhibition debates against New Hampshire University, and have been successful in the last five debates against the American.

The Debaters are scheduled to play against the American at 8 o'clock tonight in the usually crowded auditorium. The Debaters have been successful in the last five exhibitions against the American, and have also defeated the American in the last five debates.
