As We Like It

THE TECH

Wednesday, April 4, 1928

SCHOOL

Innocent murders for shining little coppers is just what it brought up in the case of Miss Lashton, a heroine of the World War, in a court of law yesterday.

"School," by Thomas W. Robert-son. (See Theater section.)

The play is rife with political and social implications. The author has attempted to make a study of the school and its effect on its students.

The school is a place where the students are taught to think for themselves and to question authority. The school is also a place where the students are taught to be independent and to have a sense of responsibility.

The play is filled with social and political commentary, and it is a reflection of the times in which it was written.

The play is a warning to the students of today to be careful of what they read and to think for themselves.

Among the cast members are:

- Miss Lashton, a heroine of the World War
- Captain Matt Braddock
- Mr. David Braddock
- Mr. Paul Braddock
- Mr. John Braddock
- Mr. William Braddock
- Mr. Thomas Braddock
- Mr. James Braddock
- Mr. Robert Braddock
- Mr. Henry Braddock
- Mr. John Braddock
- Mr. William Braddock
- Mr. Thomas Braddock
- Mr. James Braddock
- Mr. Robert Braddock
- Mr. Henry Braddock
- Mr. John Braddock
- Mr. William Braddock
- Mr. Thomas Braddock
- Mr. James Braddock
- Mr. Robert Braddock
- Mr. Henry Braddock

The play is directed by Dr. Thomas W. Robert-son, the author.

The play is produced by The New York Theatre Guild, and is presented in the Tech Theater.